

Internship at Salt & Sand Studios

About

Salt & Sand Studios comprises two studios:

- Salt Studio: Yoga and Meditation for all
Offering regular scheduled classes and private classes, an outdoor location on site and collaborations offering yoga events with other local businesses.
- Sand Studio: Glass School and Studio
Offering access to glass working in three styles; Fused/Slumped glass, Flameworking and Glass blowing. These are delivered as structured lessons and one-off hands-on events/experiences.

Duties and Responsibilities

The intern will spend approximately half the time at the studio learning glass art methods. These will be glass fusing and slumping, flameworking and - time and COVID allowing - glass blowing. The intern will learn how to make functional and decorative pieces of glass. These hours will include learning and practicing safety, tool and equipment usage and how to work as a team.

For the other half of the time, they will learn what it takes to run an artist studio as a business. This will include planning; marketing yourself and your work; running an online store; learning how to price your work; studio maintenance, prep and cleaning; and other duties involved in making a living as an artist, including managing issues that crop up unexpectedly.

Requirements & Qualifications

Interns must be 14 to 18 years old and have a strong interest in learning arts/crafts.

- Good, positive attitude toward work.
- Attention to detail and surroundings.
- Willingness to follow directions.
- Capacity and patience to be exposed to, deliver and/or support the various aspects of working as an artist for enjoyment and income.
- No previous glass experience is required.

Benefits of the Internship

This is an unpaid educational and artistic opportunity.

The goal of this internship is to provide insight to life as an artist while also introducing the student to new skills.

The intern will take home any work they created during the internship.

There is no cost to the intern for this opportunity.

Schedule & Duration

All activities to be performed at Salt & Sand Studios location in Warren, VT.
